Back-To-School With RHSC

Hearing Health Tips Fall 2021

Dr. Carly Alicea answers the four questions below by providing informative tips for parents, teachers, and caregivers.

- Has your child had their hearing checked recently?
- Do your child's new teachers know how to best communicate with them?
- Is your child's tech safe for their hearing?
- For children who use hearing devices, are their supplies and accessories ready for a new school year?

What's Going On At RHSC

As we continue to venture through 2021, it is not without saying thank you to our hearing health partners. We have been able to help our clients in full force with much anticipation as to what the future will provide the Greater Rochester Community.

We are excited to share that our agency has experienced positive growth in the last six months:

- We have hired two new audiologists to increase service capabilities at all three of our locations.
- We are now offering newborn screenings through our pediatric audiology program.
- Through the funds provided by a local foundation, we can provide additional access to therapy.
- We have opened up two more early intervention development group classrooms.
- Courtesy of a grant, a second testing booth has been installed at our Greece location.

What They Are Saying About Us

Meet Caleb | Early Intervention & TeleTherapy

"ATTENTIVE"

"We were pleasantly surprised at how quickly Caleb picked up skills as the weeks went by." — Ms. See, Caleb's Mom

Caleb's parents were concerned that he did not seem to be meeting his speech milestones at the early age of one year. After further evaluation at Rochester Hearing and Speech Center, Christine Fogarassy was assigned to work with Caleb to help him overcome some of the barriers that were holding back his progress. Though Caleb's time with Christine was relatively short, Caleb's parents were heartened by how much he learned.

Meet Faithlynn | Preschool & TeleTherapy

"DETERMINED"

"We thank Christine for making this process a learning experience, and for creating fun sessions for our four-year-old."

— Shakeela Williams, Faithlynn's Mom

At first, Faithlynn's parents were concerned that therapy to correct her speech through TeleTherapy would be too challenging. But their daughter instantly connected with Christine and accomplished a great deal throughout the virtual sessions.
